Intro to Sculpting Workshop

Jeff Gottfried, assistant to Cowboy Artists of America member Bruce Greene, and a past award winner in the Bosque Art Classic, uses his 25 years of sculpting experience and his skills as a professional educator to share his passion for the 3-dimensional form.

In this 2-day workshop, students will sculpt a 1/2-life-sized human bust. Through demonstrations, lectures, and class activities, students will learn basic sculpture techniques: clay manipulation, tools, armature, measuring techniques, and anatomy. An additional focus will be how to look at and appreciate sculpture in general. Students will learn to identify a sculpture's expression of idea, what makes a compelling design, and effective sculpture display.

From sculpting techniques to appreciation of form, Jeff will guide students through the basics and unlock the wonderful world of sculpture!

Dance Recital

The BAC played host to a dance recital in Frazier Performance Hall, with many community members attending who had never been to the BAC, according to BAC president Leanne Donner.

Kids Summer Camps

By Deb Phinney

July starts another round of kid's camps. Cursive Writing Camp is a new addition. Donna Jarman, a certified cursive writing instructor, will present these fun-filled three days of learning. Camp is Wednesday through Friday, July 6-8. The fee is $50 per student which includes supplies. Students will need to bring their lunch, a morning snack and prepare to write. There are still a few openings for this camp.

Music Camp is next up. This year it is taught by Vicky Ketchum, former Clifton resident. Ketchum previously taught the program and has come back this year to present it alongside her daughter Abigail. Camp will run July 18-22, 9 a.m. to 2 p.m. On Thursday at noon, the campers will present a special program for parents and friends. Camp is open to kids who have completed 1st-5th grades and will feature Orff Instruments, folk dancing, singing, drama and more. The fee is $75 and scholarships are available. Sign up now.

To round out our summer of camps we have the Master Chef Junior Camp, August 1-5. The Culinary Club presents this special cooking camp with a limited number of spots. Camp is $90 per child and is available for kids who have completed 4th-6th grades. It runs from 2 p.m. to 5 p.m.

For additional information, applications for each camp are located online at bosqueartscenter.org or call 254-675-3724.

Culinary Club

By Bryan Davis and Virginia Richards

It's hot outside, but we're cooling off with homemade ice cream at our July 21 Culinary Club meeting. Come at 5:00 p.m. and vote on the best freezer of pure delight.

On May 19 the Culinary Club hosted Felecia and Dustin Frederick for a fascinating presentation on charcuterie board presentation. The young couple began their business, Frederick & Co. Charcuterie and Graze Boards, in January 2021 in the midst of COVID-19. Despite challenges of the pandemic, they have continued to flourish and expand their clientele. The couple live with their two young sons near Clifton. They met as teenagers working at a Hamilton burger joint before Dustin served eight years as a Marine including deployment in both Iraq and Afghanistan. Felecia said the origins of their business started with “sample plates” they created for their boys to help them develop a taste for different foods. They used more than two dozen different food items during their demonstration for the Culinary Club. Due to the current business climate and fuel costs, Frederick and Co. primarily caters to larger events such as weddings and parties. They maintain a current website at FrederickCharcuterie.com.

The BAC Book Club is growing! Beginning in July, we will explore a different literary genre each month. July's book will be a work of historical fiction, while August's focus will be children's books. Check out the BAC website for a timely update of the current selection (posted following our monthly meeting), then plan to join the discussion. Our group is open to all BAC members, with no additional dues required to participate in the Book Club. Drop in occasionally or become one of the “regulars.” Our next meeting will be Wednesday, July 27, at 10:00 a.m. in the Atrium.

Lorana Rush Receives TBT's Watson Award

By Bryan Davis

Longtime TBT veteran actress, director, and board member Lorana Rush was the recipient of the group's highest honor, the Frances Watson

Lifetime Achievement Award, on May 27. Rush was presented the award by TBT president Linda Lowrance just prior to opening the curtain for TBT's popular comedy, Four Old Broads. Rush was a featured player in the show.

Lorana Rush receives Frances Watson Award

Rush joined the group while still a high school student in the mid-1980s. She has appeared in dozens of plays over four decades as an actress. She is also a gifted director and TBT leader. The

Lorana in melodrama 1980s

Watson Lifetime Achievement Award was first presented in 1988 to honor long standing overall contributions to the Tin Building Theatre.

Congratulations to Lorana Rush for all her many contributions to the TBT. "We wouldn't be here without her," Lowrance said.

Troubadour Songwriters Contest

By Linda Pfeiffer

We look forward to seeing some old friends and making some new friends in the songwriting world.

Needle Arts

By Punky Penberthy

The Needle Arts group enjoyed their June meeting and welcomed two new members to our group. Since the first Monday in July is July 4th, the Needle Arts Group will not meet until August. Our August meeting will feature Jean Davis, who will give instructions on how to knit.

If you have always wanted to know how to knit, please plan to join us at 10:30 a.m., Monday, August 1, 2022. All are welcome.

Bosque County Art Club

By Lillian Lemke Jacoway

Barbara Moore, our good president, was unable to attend the June meeting, due to illness. Each of us wishes her a speedy recovery. You were missed Barbara!

During the June meeting, the Bosque County Art Club enjoyed a demo on landscape painting by noted oil painter Melanie Stokes. This talented artist worked on a large painting that was very pleasing. Good job, Melanie – thank you!

In July, Laura Vaughan will be conducting a short workshop on zentangle, an interesting and detailed technique in drawing. Attendees are encouraged to participate. Looking forward to it, Laura. :-)

The June meeting also included the election of new officers for the art club. See results below.

Officers: President Barbara Moore, Vice President Beth Hatcher, Secretary Cheri Rogers, Treasurer Jan Beavers

Advisors: Stephanie Fanning, Linda Herzog, Judith Baker

ATRIUM GALLERY

NELL GODBY

Our Atrium Gallery is pleased to have Nell Godby as our artist for the month of July.

Godby is one of the original founders of the Art Club here at the Bosque Arts Center. She painted with Joann Spieler in the early years of Clifton and the BAC. Godby prefers oils but has done both oils and watercolor.

She began painting in the early 1950s with a group who started out in the old City Hall basement. Through the years this special group of ladies met in different locations and finally ended up as one of the original organizational groups at the BAC.

Godby's artwork will be on display 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. daily and at other times during BAC events. Don't miss this special exhibit of Ms. Godby's paintings during the month of July in the Atrium Gallery.
