Books on the Bosque Weekend

NOVEMBER 11-12

Friday, November 11, brings Radney Foster, An Acoustic Evening, at 7:30. The Texas-born singer/songwriter is known for solo hits “Angel Flight” and “Just Call Me

Lonesome,” along with those as part of the duo Foster & Lloyd (“Crazy Over You,” “What Do You Want from Me This Time?”). He will share selections from a recent project, For You to See the Stars, an outstanding CD and short fiction collection, with writing in the style of great Southern writers like Harper Lee and Larry McMurtry. Doors open at 6:30. Tickets $20, $40, $50, $75.

Saturday, November 12, will feature author, pilot, and speaker Nancy Robinson Masters. Nancy will share practical, proven tips and techniques she says she has “learned the hard way” through more than 3,000 published stories, articles, poems and other pieces of writing she has sold as a freelance writer. Her presentation will focus on how to avoid the “seven deadly sins” writers confront and how to conquer them. If writing for pleasure more than profit is your goal, this session will also help equip you to write in a more personal way such as sharing family stories, devotionals, humorous happenings, etc.

Lunch will be available for purchase that day, followed by the awards luncheon for the writing contest and a humorous/inspirational talk by Nancy. In the afternoon Nancy will share more secrets to succeeding, including self-publishing, writing for children, and other specific specialties. The day will close with a Q & A, a brief forum for self-publishing, and book sales. Authors who would like a table to sell books may do so by purchasing admission and reserving in advance. Admission of $20 allows one to attend any or all sessions of the day, 10 a.m. – 2:30 p.m.

Bourbon & Cigars

By Virginia Richards

There are still a few tickets available for the Bourbon & Cigar party scheduled at the BAC on November 19 at 6:00 p.m. Hosted by Blake & Joan Holman and Aubrey & Virginia Richards, those attending will enjoy good food, nice cigars, and an assortment of wonderful whiskeys to taste. You might discover a new favorite!

Call the BAC office at 254.675.3724 for reservations. Limited seats are left.
$75 per person - Reservations required.

Ladies Fashion Luncheon

By Deb Phinney

Tickets are still available for the Market at the Mill "All About Fashion" style show and luncheon, Wednesday, November 9, starting at 11:30. Tickets are $40 per person. The Ladies Luncheon features fashions and accessories available at Market at the Mill. Approximately 20 models will feature fashions and style on the runway for daywear and nightwear. Get your tickets at bosqueartscenter.org or call 254-675-3724 for more information.

Tablescapes

By Deb Phinney

Once again it's time to visit and view the creative ideas of Tablescapes, open this year November 18 through December 9. Approximately 45 tables this year are once again beautifully and uniquely decorated around a variety of themes, some spotlight holidays, special family events or just an avant garde look at setting the evening dinner table. Tables will be located in the Tin Building Theatre, open daily 10 to 4 and specially selected Saturdays 10 to 2, (Nov. 19, Nov. 26, and Dec. 3). Admission is just $5 per person.

Come be the first to see these decorative talents at the Tablescapes Opening Reception, Thursday, November 17. A wide array of delectable appetizers furnished by the ladies and gentlemen of Tablescapes combined with the special cocktail bar is worth the $25 price of admission.

Reservations are available online at www.bosqueartscenter.org or Thursday evening November 17 at the door.

Bingo

By Kathy Harr

November 1 at 6:30 p.m. is the last bingo date of the year 2022. Can you believe that?! Please come join in the fun and try to win the 500 dollar jackpot. November is the month of being thankful and the arts center is so thankful for each of you in supporting this fun game night!

Art Council

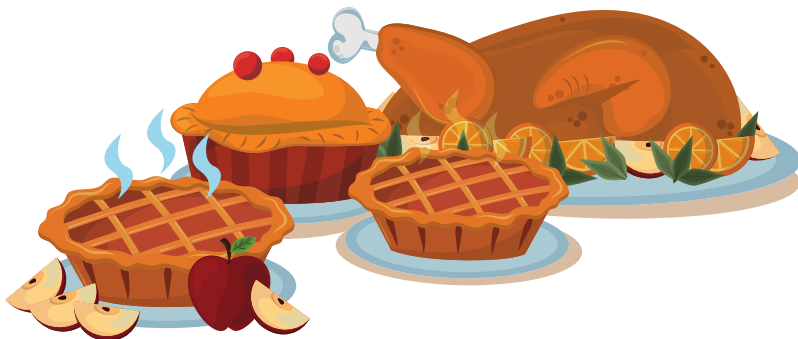

By Virginia Richards

The Art Council is taking a big sigh of relief after packing up unsold art from the 2022 Bosque Art Classic and rehangng the permanent collection. Hanging the permanent collection was like seeing old friends again and remembering all the things you like about them. It is an amazing collection of outstanding art and a treasure to the community. If you know someone new to the area, invite them to tour the BAC and linger a while on the 2nd floor gallery. It's an uplifting experience.

Culinary Club

By Virginia Richards

We are continuing a Culinary Club tradition of celebrating Thanksgiving together with a pot luck dinner on November 10 at 5:00 p.m. Bring a dish (or not!) and a guest (or not!) to enjoy a meal together in the BAC Atrium.

Gift Shop

By Kathy Harr

I know it is only November but it's beginning to look a lot like Christmas! Please remember to stop by the gift shop for a unique buying experience. We have beautiful items and purchasing here is just another way to support the beautiful Bosque Arts Center. Thank you!

North Pole Country Store

By Deb Phinney

The fun is back at the Bosque Arts Center during the North Pole Country Store event Friday and Saturday, December 2 and 3. Friday night kicks off after the parade with the Gingerbread Construction Zone. Select special gingerbread items for $15 available for decoration for both kids and adults. Pick out your cookie kit or the tiny house kit which includes all your decorating items along with the expert advice of Kit and Tym Meyers, decorating advisors from San Antonio. Kit and Tym will be on site Friday evening 6:30 to 8:30 and Saturday 10:00 a.m. to 2:00 p.m.

For the younger generation, a special visit by the Grinch is planned for both Friday night 6:30 to 8:30 and Saturday 10:00 a.m. to 2:00 p.m. Coloring contest entries distributed at the school will be accepted at this time and winners announced at a later date. Come visit with the Grinch and take advantage of this special photo opportunity.

We're spotlighting holidays from years past with some special items on sale. Members of the Bosque Arts Center have created a number of wreaths available for sale Friday and Saturday. Susan Frazier is heading up our creative team to design a number of holiday and everyday wreaths for sale, priced according to design and size. Along with wreaths, the Quilt Guild will be on hand with their hand sewn items, including table runners, pillows, hot pads, wall hangings and much more. Culinary Club and selected members have jumped in providing a selection of delicious treats for sale. Pottery sales and food sampling items are also on the list as well as the gift shop's selection of holiday gifting items.

Again this year the BAC is the official stop on the Norwegian Country Christmas Tour for the Quilt display. The second floor hallway gallery will be decked out in the colors of red and white quilts in honor of the colors of the season. Quilts furnished by quilt member Judith Stone.

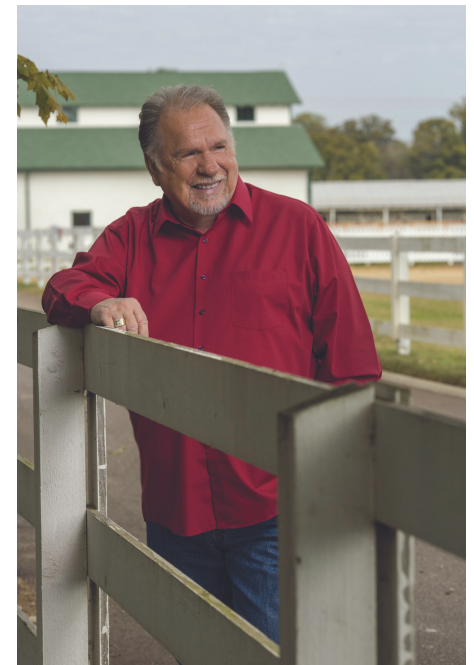

Swing by the BAC to meet your friends, shop for gifts and create a gingerbread decorating memory while enjoying spiced cider and cookies Friday evening and Saturday. See you there!!!

Troubadour

By Linda Pfeiffer

The 9th Annual Texas Troubadour Songwriter Classic enlisted T. G. Sheppard and Kelly Lang as judges and headliners, with entries from Colorado, Tennessee, Oklahoma, Texas and other states. The top 5 singer/songwriter finalists: Tobi Lee of Portland, Tennessee; Jay Stott of Lyons, Colorado; Rickey Tate of Burleson; Kris Tiscareno of Shawnee, Oklahoma; and Edward Zschiesche of Burleson.

Watch for information on the next concert performer, Gene Watson, in the December newsletter.

Quilt Guild

By Linda Pfeiffer

Our November meeting found us playing bingo and discussing how much fun Fall Fest was for this group. As well as discussing a table design for Tablescares.

Our December meeting will take the form of a Christmas party at the home of Cheryl Lundberg.

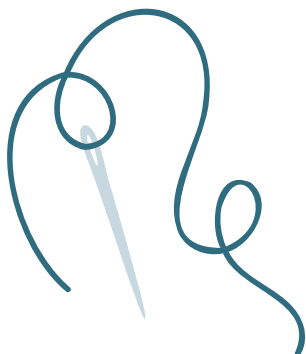

For quilting questions or information on joining us at a meeting please call 254 675-3724.

Needle Arts

By Punky Penberthy

The members of the Needle Arts Group enjoyed a special treat in October when Gayle Anderson, owner of Fancy Stitches, in Cleburne visited and showed examples of how needlepoint has changed over the years. Rebecca Clift brought delicious muffins to enhance the meeting!

The November meeting of this group will be held as usual, the first Monday of the month, November 7, at 10:30 a.m. in the atrium. All are welcome.

ATRIUM GALLERY

CURTIS CALLAWAY

Curtis Callaway is our Atrium Gallery artist for the month of November. Callaway, a photographer and cinematographer, has 31 years experience in extreme environments. Today he works as not only a photographer but an explorer, environmental journalist and a professor, teaching photography and video production to students at MCC and Baylor University's Department of Journalism, Public Relations and New Media. His combined interests for adventure, travel, photography, education and science have led him to over 27 countries on six continents working for clients such as Jean-Michel Cousteau Productions, Discovery, Smithsonian and NOAA.

Callaway is planning to launch his new company Glyph, which will offer all-inclusive workshops taking photographers on creative expeditions all around the world. These expeditions will offer the opportunity to hone their skills and document untold stories from all parts of the globe.

Callaway's photography will be on display 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. daily and at other times during BAC events. Don't miss Curtis Callaway's special photography exhibit during the month of November in the Atrium Gallery.

An opening reception will be held for the Callaway photography exhibit in the Atrium Gallery on Thursday, November 3 beginning at 5:00 p.m. Refreshments served. Everyone is invited to attend.

Bosque County Art Club

By Lillian Jacoway

Drawing and painting from a live model – can't beat it!

Stephanie Manning posed for the Art Club in our October meeting. She did a fantastic job. Thank you, Stephanie.

Can you believe that November is our very next meeting? We will be creating various projects, including Christmas ornaments - and cards for both Thanksgiving and Christmas. Don't miss this!

The first Tuesday in December will be the most fun day of the year for the art club. We will have a wonderful meal, and lots of fun competition during our Chinese Christmas gift exchange. Bring two wrapped gifts - One white elephant gift, and one regular – $10 value. Also, bring one covered side dish. The meat dish will be provided by the club.

Book Club

By Beth Hatcher

The Holidays are a time for festivities, family... and feasting! November's Book Club theme is Food (what else?). Best-selling author, Barbara Kingsolver, chronicles her family's year-long experiment on their farm in rural Virginia. Their plan: Eat only what they could grow themselves or obtain locally.

Laced with humor and honesty, Animal, Vegetable Miracle: A Year of Food Life (2007) (also titled Our Year of Seasonal Eating) "makes a passionate case for putting the kitchen back at the center of family life..." We'll follow Kingsolver's journey as we debate the upsides and downsides of "eating locally."

Book club meets Wednesday, November 30 at 10:00 a.m.

HAPPY THANKSGIVING!

The Bosque Arts Center will be closed on Thursday and Friday the week of Thanksgiving for the holiday.

Wedding Oak Winery

Reminder - We still have a few places in the Wedding Oak wine-blending party on January 13.
