IN MEMORIAM

Our condolences go to the family of Ken Van Tassel, who passed away in July. Ken and his wife Lexie have been long-time BAC members. Ken was active in the Bosque Civic Music Association and Bosque Chorale, and he served as a jovial Santa Claus in the Christmas parade. Ken also joined Cleon Flanagan and Steve Robertson to install the floor in the BAC's yoga/ karate room.

Culinary Club - July Pizza Night

The Culinary Club met on July 18 and enjoyed a fascinating demonstration on making homemade pizza crust and sauce from Bill and Trish Hightower. Those present enjoyed using favorite toppings to create individualized pizzas. During a business meeting led by president Jenny Walker, plans for a social in August at Olaf's were discussed, a fall trip to the Culinary Department of TSTC in Waco, and a potluck Thanksgiving dinner. Culinary Club has no membership fee, just individuals who meet for cooking demonstrations, share recipes and ideas, and enjoy fellowship centered around a common interest in good food. All are welcome. -BD

~Culinary Club will not meet in August.~

Art Club

At the Art Club July meeting, Megan Major demonstrated how to effectively use shadows in oil paintings. Thank you, lovely Megan!

Members brought paintings for a co-op exhibit in the Joan Spieler room. Exhibiting artists are Barbara Moore, Judith Baker, Lillian Jacoway, Barbara Haynes, Nell Godby, Carolyn Cotton, Cheri Rogers, and Daphne Tenant. Reuben Jacoway is shown hanging the exhibit.

Everyone is excited to have Cheryle Chapman give a demonstration in August (Fun with Fin & Fur) and Betty Graham (Quick Landscape) in September! Both Cheryle and Betty are watercolor artists. Come learn and paint! -LLJ Questions/suggestions? Contact barbaubles@gmail.com

Tin Building Theatre News

TBT will be holding auditions for its first-ever murder mystery theatre production. The Ken Jones audience-interactive play, Dead to the Last Drop, will run for four performances in October. Tryouts are scheduled for Thursday, Aug. 8, at 7 p.m. and Sunday, Aug. 11, at 2 p.m. The play, which will be directed by Don Boysen, has roles for three men and three women. TBT participated in this year's July 4th "Red, White & Proud VIII," by presenting comedy skits, special music, and manning concessions. A large crowd was present to enjoy the traditional BAC offering to the community. -BD

Burgers & Blues

Burgers and Blues was greatly enjoyed by all who attended. The evening started with delicious burgers grilled by George Walker and Steve Watson. Punky Penberthy's famous chocolate chip cookies were a perfect end to the meal. Van Wilks made it easy to understand why he is a member of the Texas Music Hall of Fame. Van brought the packed audience to their feet when he masterfully played the 12-string guitar. Wilks interacted with the audience, sharing personal stories as he played oldies and many of his original songs. He was accompanied by virtuoso Austin guitarist Josh Smith. As the evening of burgers and music came to an end, there were remarks like "Best music ever," "What an evening to remember," and "Bring Van Wilks back to The BAC." The music left smiles on faces and tunes being hummed as the audience left the BAC after an evening of fantastic music. -DJ [Photos by Punky Penberthy]

Photography Guild

The Photography Guild will meet at 10:00 a.m. Tuesday, August 26. We'll meet at the BAC, then go to the Clinic to get photos. Bring at least 6 photos to exchange out.

Hope your summer has been great; let's get back to business!

Quilt Guild

Our June meeting was just plain fun! Loretta Bosley brought lots of items from her shop, Loretta's Stitch N Stuff, located in Whitney, to display and discuss. Panels and colors were the words of the evening.

Our next meeting will also have to do with colors. Dyeing your own fabric! Tina Dekle will discuss and demonstrate that process for us. If you're interested, please join us at 6:30 PM for visiting, with our meeting starting at 7:00 PM August 6. -LP
