BAC Ladies Trip to Miami and the Florida Keys

Once again we're looking towards the southeast with palm trees, ocean, sunny beaches, stone crab (the best), little umbrella drinks, designer shops, art, and more. The BAC Ladies Trip is planning our delayed journey to Miami and the Florida Keys on March 5-12, 2022. While in Miami we'll stay at the Miami Biltmore in Coral Gables and then shift to Islamorada midway down the Keys to wrap up our tropical visit. Many activities have been planned including a food tour in Little Havana, a meal at Joe's Stone Crab Restaurant (famous for stone crabs, fried chicken, and key lime pie), art-viewing, touring and shopping. Trip details will be finalized shortly including cost and payment options. If you're interested, please call Deb Phinney to get your name on the list and be contacted once details are finalized. We have a maximum of 30 spaces available, with double occupancy non-smoking hotel rooms; some single occupancy rooms are available. Sign-up is on a first come, first served basis. So find your roomie--friend, neighbor, mother, daughter, aunt, niece or whoever (sorry, no guys allowed)--and call the office today to save your place. -DP

Virginia Richards demonstrated her cream gravy recipe for the complete Southern breakfast side. Planning continues for the upcoming Cooking Camp for Young Chefs, scheduled for August 2-6. The class has already filled, but there is a waiting list. The group discussed other plans for the coming year. ## Bosque Art Classic

[Rattlesnake Ridge by Joyce Hooper]

36th Annual Art Classic

The Art Council is pleased to announce almost 600 entries have been received for our 36th Annual Bosque Art Classic. With COVID now behind us, mark your calendars for the Art Classic Opening Ceremony on Saturday, September 11, 2021, with the private Art Patron Reception held on Friday, September 10. The show will be open for public viewing September 12-25. This year's judge is Tyler Crow, an Art Classic alumnus, a multi award-winning artist and member of the Cowboy Artists of America. We are excited to reconvene in our galleries for this year's show. See you there. -jl

The Atrium Gallery welcomes Lynda Herzog as our July featured artist. Lynda is a newcomer to the Art Club and to painting itself. She specializes in wildlife and her medium of choice is acrylic. Lynda is very excited about her exhibit in the gallery, as this is her first time to display her collection of works. The Atrium Gallery is available for viewing daily Monday through Friday, 9 a.m. to 5 p.m., and during special events here at the BAC. Be sure to stop by and view her works on display in July. -DP

SUMMER INTERN

The BAC welcomes Sydney Hewitt, who is serving a summer internship here. Sydney is a past winner in the Art Council's high school art show, as well as the designer of the Books on the Bosque logo. She is a senior at SMU pursuing a BA in Art and a BBA in Management with minors in Arts Entrepreneurship and Art History. "Ever since I was young, I knew I loved art," Sydney says. "As I grew older I discovered a love for business as well, and found a degree to meld my interests." Sydney has been active with SMU's Christian Crusade for Christ and Prison Entrepreneurship Program. Her interests include painting, throwing pots (ceramics), playing tennis, day trading, and blogging. "My goal is to become an art museum manager and one day start businesses within the art industry," Sydney says and adds that this internship "is an amazing opportunity as I am able to explore the various operating parts of an arts organization to gain real life knowledge and learn from the many experienced people here."

Art Club

Pam Eggebrecht gave her presentation, "Creative Chaos," for the Art Club's June meeting. Attendees had never seen anything quite like this eclectic application of different media. Does this prove that the saying "rules are made to be broken" is true? Pam did a GREAT job. Everyone said so.

BCAC reelected the current slate of officers for next year. After the vote and presentation, our annual catered luncheon was held in the Joan Spieler room.

Lynda Herzog is our demonstrator for July 6. Her "Wildlife Painting" will be interesting and informative. -LLJ
