34TH ANNUAL BOSQUE ART CLASSIC

The 34th Annual Bosque Art Classic will open with a special preview awards ceremony and dinner on September 14, 2019. The exhibit and sale, known for its variety of outstanding artwork, this year boasts over 230 original pieces from 136 artists. Past Jones Award winners Matt Atkinson, Herman Walker, and Kathy Tate are joined by other popular show veterans Susan Temple Neumann, Jean Olliver, and Pokey Park. In just his sophomore year in the show, Brian Bateman will have four pieces on exhibit. Newcomers in the show this year include Cheryl Harley-Volz and renowned wildlife artist Ezra Tucker, who had pieces in last spring's Online Fine Art Auction. Area artists in the show include Lloyd Voges, Samuel Shelton, and Ann Patton. Reg Narmour, June Dudley, and Vickie Guthrie are some of the other BAC members accepted in the show.

All pieces in the show may be viewed in the online gallery at BosqueArtsCenter.org. The Classic is also expanding its web presence this year by opening the sale up to online purchases after opening weekend. Collectors will now have the option to attend and purchase opening night (with a 10% discount) or to purchase pieces online beginning Monday, September 16. More details will be available on the BAC website.

Tickets to opening night are $50 and must be purchased in advance, available online, by phone (254-675-3724), or at the BAC. The show will remain on display free to the public September 15-28: Sun. (9/15) 11a-2p; M-F, 10a-5p; Sat. (9/21 & 28) 10a-4p.

Oreland C. Joe Sr. served as judge this year. The first Native American to be invited into the Cowboy Artists of America, Joe is recognized as a master of stone and bronze.

Jeannie Seely Headlines Texas Troubadour

Get November 2 on your calendar. Join us and cheer on the Troubadour contestants! Remember the audience chooses the People's Choice award. You definitely will want to be a part of this!

After the contest our celebrity judge Miss Jeannie Seely, known as "Miss Country Soul," will perform for us. Some of her past hits include "Don't Touch Me" and "Can I Sleep in Your Arms." Miss Seely is a long-time Grand Ole Opry performer and has made frequent appearances on Country Family Reunion on RFD-TV. She currently hosts her own show on Sirius XM.

Tickets go on sale in September. The sale for sponsor seats will run Tuesday, September 3, until Wednesday, September 11. The BAC member pre-sale begins Monday, September 16, and ticket sales open online and to the public on Monday, September 23. -LP

GRAHAM TO CHRISTEN THE ATRIUM GALLERY

Please join us for a reception celebrating the grand opening of our new gallery on October 3!

The Atrium Gallery, located on the atrium level of the Bosque Arts Center, will showcase our many local artists with a new artist featured monthly. We are pleased and honored that local watercolor artist and long-time BAC member Mrs. Betty Graham will grace the gallery with her lovely work for our grand opening.

We hope that you can drop by to have a look at the new gallery, visit with friends, and enjoy refreshments. -DP/JB

Tin Building Theatre News

The Ken Jones interactive murder mystery production, Dead to the Last Drop, has been cast and rehearsals are underway at the Tin Building Theatre. Director Don Boysen has assembled a talented collection of seasoned veterans as well as high school students and new talent. Cast for the play include TBT stage veterans Bob Fuller as Dr. Bill Kildare, Lorana Rush as Ariel Ford, and Kris Chandler as Robert Ludzeski, along with Kaitlyn Eary as Miranda De Vere, Mallory Knox as Clarise, and newcomer Kenny Boshier as Tully.

The show will open and close with dinner performances on October 5 and 12. A Sunday matinee is scheduled for Oct. 6, and another regular performance on Oct. 11. Follow the TBT Facebook page for the most current ticket information and show updates, visit us online at bosqueartscenter.org, or give us a call at 254-675-2278. -BD

TRASHED!!! Let's talk trash and recycling for Bosque County. The Heart of Texas Council of Governments (Solid Waste Dept.) is giving out more money in the form of grants just like the one that was written for the glass crusher/tumbler in Meridian. So let's put our heads together and figure out another use for the money in the way of recycling. Bring your complaints/comments/criticisms/suggestions on Sept. 16 at 5:00 p.m. to the Bosque Arts Center and let's brainstorm. -DT

Quilt Guild
 Our July meeting was quite colorful. Our speaker, Tina Dekle, provided a great deal of information on the process of dyeing fabric. Then we created our own design and dyed the fabric. Interesting results!

Our next program will be presented by Susan Hutyra, the "Quilt Bucket List": What quilts are on your list?

The next meeting is September 3 at 6:30 p.m. and all are invited to join us. -LP

IN MEMORIAM

We extend our condolences to the family of Julian Wilson with his passing in late July. Julian and his wife, Wanda, have been long-time BAC members, supporters of the Art Patrons, Art Club, and TBT. A Mason, Shriner, and Rotarian, Julian was known for his civic-mindedness and continuous efforts to better his community in all the places he lived.
