Newsletter for the Performing & Visual Arts in Central Texas

The outstanding art in 35th Annual Bosque Art Classic is now viewable on the Art Classic page of BosqueArtsCenter.org. The 202 pieces in the show feature a variety of representational art from across the nation, with exemplary landscapes, still life scenes, portraits, and, of course, the western art for which the show has become so well known. Past award winners in this year's show include Tatsiana Harbach-euskaya, Kathy Tate, Matt Atkinson, June Dudley, Cheryl Harley-Volz, Joe Barbieri, and Pokey Park. Returning also are Jean Olliver, Ezra Tucker, Nancy Harkins, and Homer Hensley. The show has 20 newcomers accepted; among them are Greg Lewallen, Trish Poupard, Linda Becker, and Hugh Greer.

The BAC Art Council is busy gearing up for the online exhibition and sale, which runs September 12-26, 2020. A video premiering on Facebook Saturday, September 12, at 7 p.m. will honor the artists and award winners in this year's show, selected by 2020 judge Bruce Greene. All who tune in will get to hear Bruce's take on the show, along with his comments on the exceptional pieces he chose for the Gold and Silver Medal awards.

After an Art Patron Pre-Sale on Saturday, the online sale will open on Monday, Sept. 14, at 10 a.m. and will close on September 26 at 2 p.m. The sale site will go live on September 8, when a link and instructions will be provided on the BAC website. If you've participated in the e-BAC auctions or last year's online Classic sale, you should have no trouble navigating the 2020 Art Classic. Call the BAC 254.675.3724 during BAC hours or 254.386.6049 after hours if you have trouble.

Culinary Club Cookbook

Culinary Club!

This month is the deadline for submitting recipes to be included in the BAC cookbook. Our next step will be proofreading and organizing the recipes for publication. Please email your recipes to Donna Jarman at donna@sillywabbit.com.

Artists! We would like to have artist illustrations in the BAC cookbook. If this project appeals to you, contact Virginia Richards at norsehome1673@yahoo.com. -VR

Your art + our recipes = winning combination

Art Club Art Tip

Understanding composition! Two simply drawn lines make a difference in a finished painting. One vertical and one horizontal line divide the ground (paper or canvas) into four sections. Yes, this draws a cross.

Don't draw either line in the exact center, so that each section is a different size. Where the lines intersect is the logical place for the center of interest/focal point. When the horizontal line is drawn high on the paper, there will be more ground showing. When the horizontal line is drawn lower on the paper/canvas, there will be more sky visible. This determines whether the viewer is observing from a higher or a lower point.

In the acrylic beach scene, the horizontal line is high. In the watercolor painting of the trees, the horizontal line is low.

Questions and comments are welcomed. ldlart@yahoo.com -LLJ

Quilt Guild

Everyone is busily working on quilting projects at home and we all look forward to when we can get together again. This group stays busy doing good deeds as well. We have been asked to make twin size quilts for a number of young girls via an organization in Waco called Isaiah's Place.

However, meetings are still dependent on Covid-19 and thus TBD. Notification will be made when we can meet. Stay safe and happy quilting! -LP

Watson Memorial Fund

The death of Steve Watson was a blow to every member of BAC, but the loss was perhaps felt most deeply within the BCMA and Bosque Chorale. While Steve willingly shared his talents wherever asked or needed, it was music that was always his most heartfelt passion. He was a major player in every aspect of the BCMA and BC since their organization in 2009. Therefore, Steve's family named BCMA for memorials. The BCMA board formed a committee to determine how best to recognize Steve's contributions and keep his memory alive. The Committee is moving forward to bring the Steve Watson Piano Lab to fruition beginning in January offering lessons for students of all ages. Your support of this effort would be greatly appreciated by Steve's family, and we believe it would make Steve very proud. Memorials should be made to the Watson Memorial Fund, c/o BAC, Box 373, Clifton, Texas 76634. -BD

Texas Troubadour Trivia

While we're currently not having concerts or songwriting contests, we can still reminisce some about past events. We will be back when we can safely treat you to music and fun!

Did you know BAC members Judi Boston and Sally Douglas launched the concept of Troubadour for the BAC? Red Steagall was the first Troubadour contest judge and performer that year. It takes a volunteer crew of approximately 20 to produce a Troubadour event.

Can you answer the following trivia? (See answers below.)

1. What year was the first Troubadour held?
2. What are the three prizes given during the Texas Troubadour Songwriter contest?
3. Who were co-judges for the fourth contest?

The most recent judge was Jeannie Seely. She gave us such a good show!

Now, think about the concert you most enjoyed and smile! Share those memories with your friends and family!

More trivia to follow next month! -LP
